

Anisha Nagarajan

anishan@usc.edu | 408-489-1405 | Bay Area/Los Angeles

Education

B.S. Computer Science & Business Administration

University of Southern California, Expected Graduation: May 2019

High School Diploma

Saratoga High School, Graduation: June 2015

Work Experience

Symantec Corp: Engineering Configuration Management Intern (Summer 2016)

- Lead intern on Build Automation project
- Designed and built web-controls to simplify the development process (in production)
- Configured ELK server technology for Build Automation analytics and pioneered company-wide usage of the tool

Oracle Inc: Intern (Summer 2013, 2014)

- Youngest code contributor to OpenJDK platform

Volunteering/Interests

Scope USC (Fall 2016 - present)

- Trained in iOS development for 8 weeks before splitting into development teams
- Currently working on Lullaby: an app that monitors breathing patterns and shuts off audio or visual content when the user has fallen asleep

USC Society of Women Engineers (Fall 2015-Present)

- Participated in engineering workshops to educate and encourage elementary school girls interested in STEM

ChimeHack 2 (July 2015)

- Won "Best Product for Incubation" for SafeBridge: an anonymous counseling application for domestic abuse survivors

Code For India (2014-15)

- Redesigned their website to increase workflow and organization
- Mediated between a team of designers in Silicon Valley and developers in India

Breast Cancer Awareness Club, Saratoga High School (2012-2015)

- Co-founded this club and planned events and fundraisers for National Breast Cancer Foundation

Skills

- Programming Languages: C++, Java, iOS, HTML, CSS, Javascript, Python
- Captain of Saratoga High School Varsity Soccer team